

Ricardo Recinos

Partner

+502 2421-5777

ricardo.recinos@carrillolaw.com

<http://linkedin.com/in/ricardo-recinos-219860112>

Experience

Ricardo currently heads the Arbitration and Regulatory Law Practice Group and is a member of the Civil, Commercial and Constitutional Litigation Practice Group.

His experience includes participating in civil, commercial and administrative proceedings, and the filing of special appeals on points of law (cassations), constitutional relief proceedings and other constitutional proceedings in defense of the rule of law.

Education

- Attorney-At-Law and Notary, San Carlos de Guatemala University, 2008.
- Diploma in Economic Analysis of Tort Law. Institute of Commercial Law, 2012.
- Postgraduate studies in Constitutional Law, Mariano Gálvez University, thesis pending, 2015.
- Diploma in Negotiation and Conciliation, Dispute Resolution Committee of the Chamber of Industry of Guatemala, 2015.
- Diploma in Civil Cassation, Guatemalan Bar association, 2016.
- Postgraduate degree in Commercial-Criminal Law, University of San Carlos de Guatemala and Institute of Commercial Law, 2020.
- Course on Tax Litigation and Protection of Taxpayer Rights in the European Union and Latin America, Complutense University of Madrid, Spain. 2021.
- Master in Renewable Energies, Technological University Tech, in process of study. 2022.

Publications and contributions

- Thesis: "Revocation Remedy in Administrative Matters", 2008.
- Several publications on Tax Litigation and Protection of Taxpayers' Rights for the electronic magazine "Equidad y Justicia Tributaria".
- Professor and speaker at the tax courses and congresses organized by the Educational Training Center "C-educu".

Memberships

Guatemalan Bar Association

Practice areas

Arbitration and regulatory law; Civil, Commercial and Constitutional Litigation.

Languages

Spanish